We establish an existence result of Cournot-Walras equilibria in the same framework with the counter example of Roberts and Sonnenschein [Econometrica, vol. 45, 101-113. 1977.]. Our result is based on the lattice theoretical game theory and do not depend on the convex-valuedness of best responses of imperfect competitors. All our assumptions are on the fundamental datum of economies.